Engineering Solutions & Products, LLC (ESP) Relocates Corporate Headquarters to Virginia

ESP Headquarters relocated to the DC Metro area

CHANTILLY, VIRGINIA— October 8, 2015—Douglas Fouser, President & CEO of Engineering Solutions & Products, LLC (ESP), formally announced this week that ESP has relocated its Corporate headquarters to Chantilly, VA from Eatontown, NJ.

Relocation to the DC metro area enhances the capacity of ESP to expand markets and diversify its portfolio. “We are proud to have our new headquarters located in Chantilly, VA. We have immediate plans to expand our integrated logistics solutions business into new customer markets while launching our new service offerings in information technology,” said Fouser.

ESP’s new facility has a state-of-the-art Training Center that will be utilized by the ESP Training Center of Excellence (TCoE). The company also has a spacious Conference Center to support symposiums. ESP has additional offices in Killeen, TX; Havre de Grace, MD; and Augusta, GA. The Eatontown, NJ office will remain open with a small staff.
